P M. S. S. Co.'s Time Table for 188.

T. MIL O. O. OV. O.		MAC.	TWO!	TOT	TOOT
FOR SAN PRANCISCO.		Fou	SYDNEY	63/23	ACCREA	ND
City of Sydney Jan	27:	Zenl	sndia		Inn	22
AustraliaFeb	14	(C)11y	of Syds	sey	Feb	19
City of New York March	14	Aun	tenlia	a de la constante	March	19
ZealandiaApril	11	City	of New	York	L. April	1.6
City of Sydney May	- 56	Zeal	andia		May	2.4
AustraliaJune	10	City	of Syds	ier.	June	T1
City of New York July
Zealandia Ang
City of Sydney Ang	29	Zeni	andia	-	Sept	. 10
Australia Sept	26	City	of Syd:	DET	Oct	1
City of New York Oct
Zealandia Nov	21	*City	of New	Yor	kNov	26
City of Sydney Dec	196	Zeal	anvila		Dec	24

COMMERCIAL.

PRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1881 We had to record another week of dulness in business circles, but the starnation is only temporary and we may reasonably expect that the coming week will be more prolific with trade then the one preceding. Sugar is commencing to arrive in small lots from some but it is rather early to expect large shipments. Rice, which has been held by shippers, on account of the low quotations from the Coast, is now being forwarded with dispatch on account of the late favorable

The imports of the week consist of the cargoes of general merchandise brought from the Coast by the Ella and H W Almy, and a light cargo of miscellaneous merchandise brought by the City of New York from the South; the total valuation of all the imports being nearly $43,565.

The exports have increased in a slight degree in but, in the cargoes taken Coastwards by the Kalakaua, Anna, and City of New York, we notice besides the 2793 Ibe goatskins, 7309 Ibs sheepskins, and 1002 bunches bananas, were also included in the $102,167 57 valuation of domestic exports.

The next yeared to sail for the Coast will be the Eureka leaving this port on or about the 30th inst. The P.M.S.S. Australia is due here from San Francisco on the 19th test ,but may not arrive before the monraing of the Wat.

PORT OF HONOLULU, H. I. ARRIVALS.

Oct 23-Stmr Kilauca Hou, from Kahulni 22-Stmr Lehua, from Mani and Molokai 22-Stmr Mokolii, from Koolau -Schr Warwick, from Kalampapa 24—Stmr Likelike, from Hilo 24—Stmr C. H. Bishop, from Kanal 24—Schr Haleskala, from Pepekso -Schr Manuokawai, from Hanamania -Schr Waioli, from Panuhan 4-Schr Waiehu, from Ecokeo-24—Schr Mans, from Kona 24—Schr Kanikesonii, from Henekaa 26—Schr Kaala from Waianse 26—Schr Nettle Merrill, from Labaina 26—Schr Gen'i Seigel, from Waialua

ROBERGE Oct 23-H I R M clipper Plastoun, from San Francisco 26-H I R M clipper, Vastnick, from San Francisco 25-Am bk H W Almy, Freeman, 15 days from S F 24-Am bkine Ella, Brown, 14% days from S F 24-P M S S City of New York, Cobb, from Sydney

DEPARTURES. COASTWEEK.

24 Home Killsney How for Kabului 4-Stmr Iwalani, for Kona and Kau 4-Schr Wailele, for Maliko 5-Stmr Likelike, for Hilo 5—Stmr Lehna, for Mani and Molokai 5—Stmr C. R. Bishop, for Kanai 5—Schr Waioli, for Panihau 5—Schr Liholiho, for Koloa 5-Sehr Waieku, for Paanbau Sehr Kauikenouli, for Honakaa Sehr Mana, for Maliko -Schr Maunoakawai, for Kekaha 27-Stur Jas. Makee, for Kapaa and Kilsuca 27-Schr Mary Foster, for Kona and Honnapa

FOREIGN. Oct 22-Am bk Kalakaus, Jenks, for S F 22-H I B M clipper Vastrick, for Hilo and cruise 23-Am schr Anna, Penhallow, for S F 25-P M S S City of Naw York, Cobb, for S F

POREIGN VESSELS IN PORT.

Br bgine Surprise,
Am bkine Eureka, Emerson
Br bk Lady Lampson, Marston
Am schr A. F. Briggs, ForbesAm bk Busna Vista, Calbonn. Am bk Ceylon, Haliett. Am bk Ruena Vista, Callum Am bkine Ella, Brown Am bk H W Almy, Turner Am bk Revere, McIntyre

Vessels Expected from Foreign Ports. Am ble Jenny Pitts, Wickburg, from Port Gamble, Oct B M & Trumph Stirling from South America, doubtf resian cytte Duke of Edinburgh, from Gibralter, Oct

SHIPPING NOTES.

The German bark Adonis, Captain Dehards, sailed from Bremen on August 3rd, for Honolulu, and passed off Dun-The Wanderer and Vastnick will probably arrive to-day

The Hawn brig Stormbird was wrecked on August t, off Bonham Island. Crew saved. WRECK OF THE HAWAIIAN BRIGARTISE STORMFIRD. The New Zealand Herold of October 10 says :- By the zrival of the schooner Beile Brandon we learn that the

the weather reef, and became a wreck. Two whalehout were endeavoring to tow her away when she struck. Th crew were saved. A portion of the stores was also save uninjured, and some other goods were damaged."

MEMORANDA.

Report of P M S S City of New York, W B Cobb, com-anier.—Sailed from Sydney October 6, at 3 p.m., and charged the pilot at 3.45 ; arrived at Auckland on the lith at 4.55 a.m. and sailed same day at 4.25 p.m. Crossed the 180 meridian of longitude on the 13th, and the equator on the 19th; communicated with the P M S S City of Sydney on the second 13th, at 9 s m., and reported Il well on board. Arrived at Honolulu on the 24th, at 12 Me s.m. Experienced pleasant weathers and moderate trades; during the three days prior to arrival at this port met with a heavy swell from the northwest.

IMPORTS.

From San Francisco, per H W Almy, Oct 25-Lot groceries and cannol goods, 1810 seks grain, 300 pkgs bread and crackers, 1800 seks flour, 20 do Graham flour, 227 pkgs potatoes, 37 do onions, 145 pkgs tea, 1 wagon, 78 pkgs hetware and eastings, 34 bndis iron, 1 csc books, 21 cs dry goods, 1 tank napths, 12 rolls matting, 29 bales hay, 6 rolls leather, 5 cs mehnry, 129 bbls linne, 628 bndis shocks, 129 bbls heads, 30 pkgs furniture, 25 bbls salmon, 5 pkgs cals wine, lot building material, 141 pkgs paints, 2 sewg machines, 3 cs powder, 5 coils cordage, 1 bx type 10 pkgs tobacco, 30 m bricks, 3 horses, small lot mis

From San Erancisco, per Ella, Oct 24—Large lot Chinese midse and graceries, and canned goods, 124 pkgs bread, 1689 schn flour, 570 schn potatoss, 65 schn ontons, 41 pkgs ten, I wagon, lot briware, 15 bars and 2 sheets iron, 126 T rails, 135 bales hay, 1 wagon, 2 horses, 1 cow, wills leather, 24 on boots and above 26 pkers drugs pigs stationery, 58 page furniture, 205 page salmen, 172 page liquors, 30 tons moubling sand, 14 colls cordare, 54 plays tobacco, etc. 30% m bricks, 250 r w posts, 55 plays

From Sydney, per City of New York, Oct 24-25 cs

EXPORTS.

For San Francisco, per Kalakana, Oct 22-209 pkgs molasses, 1181 htdes, 1355 goatskins, 1250 sheepskins, 8 bdls do, 15 bbls tallow, 12 bra old type, 100 bags rice, 5 pkgs mise indses. Dom val, 89 377 78. Fgn val, 8110 00. For San Francisco, per City of New York, Oct 21-2008 sugar, 3724 bags rice, 151 bales weel, 30 pags betel, 1 cse fruit, 1042 buchs bananas, 5 pags effects. Dom val $47,172 45. Fgn val. $100. For San Francisco, per Anna, Oct 25-5801 pkgs sugar, 10 bdls hides, I bx Iava specimens. Dom val. $43,613 32.

PASSENGERS.

Smith, L Touissant, J B Wilcox, Spreckels, Mrs Hunt and daughter.

From San Francisco, per Ella, Oct 2s-E w Catheart,

Dance are "must be built water-tight,"

A Levida, S Bruhlutz, O Olsen.

Dance are "must be built water-tight," and "must be made water-tight." He who sengers in transit to the Coast.

From Windward Ports, per Likelike, Oct 23-Go

BIRTH. REOPI-FRENCH .- On Wednesday, 30th instant, to Mrs.

DEATHS.

McKAY .- On the 27th inst., in this city, Major Jackson McKENZIE —At sea, on board the American bark H. W. Almy, on her way to Honolulu, J. W. M. McKenzie, native of Winchester, Mass., in the 25th year of his age (Winchester and Boaton papers please copy.)

THE PACIFIC

Commercial Advertiser. OCTOBER 29, 1881. SATURDAY

KALAKAUA!

WELCOME HOME!

OUR KING is coming home, and we shall be glad to welcome His Majesty back to his volume and are not confined to sugar and give as usual, capital. Our nation has the defect of being small; but it has the advantage, that every 905,825 the sugar, and 282,400 the vice, that 70,165 the hides. | member of it may know and meet his chief. And this is the case in this little Kingdom, that every man of the soil, and know the King. Many speak of him with the affection of a family relationship. He is "David," the kindly friend and brother the earth, their sovereign His Majesty King > only one among the sovereigns of the earth who has made the tour of the world. And he has gone forth not merely to gratify curiosity; but for the great purpose of reply its souls-not like David of old inviting outlaws to a cave of Adullam; nor like a Romulus, planning a scheme of abduction to supply the deficient quota of the gentle sex, so sadly needed in the Archipelago; but, displaying his royal standard, and noble device "Hooulu Lahui," Increase the Nation, this enlightened Paladin King points to the equity and beneficence of the laws of his Kingdom; to the abundant churches and schools fostered in his realm; to the just and generous treatment of immigrating races by his own native peaceful and industrious of all races, says; "Come, and be welcome; and live in peace with us, as one nation!"

> Kalakaua by his world-wide range and observation, has acquired the character of a cosmopolitan King; and it will be fitting; as his beneficent Government harmonises and assimilates within the Archipelago, the people of Europe and America; and of China, Japan, Hindustan, and other countries, that Kalakaua the foremost Man of the Pacific shall become the Sovereign of a glorious cosmopolitan Pacific State.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Lilluokalani, Regent of the Kingdom, will in a few days resign her important trust into the hands of Her Royal Brother. For a little over nine months, the Princess ment; and Her Royal Highness has held there with a firm hand, animated by a good judicious and beneficent rule.

either foreign or native, will ever need to carriages with fore-riders stood in waiting

WE ARE GLAD to learn, even in a roundabout way, and through an unofficial channel, that the President of the Board of Health, after perusing our remarks on the subject, has concluded not to enforce so much of the ordinance of September 23rd, "concerning privies, cesspools, &c.." as we have taken objection to. Our not usually too credulous contemporary, the Gazette, denounced was never contemplated by the Board when this ordinance was framed and passed. "It is the sides only of the vaults butter, cake gin, 4 rolls matting, 9 cs misc mises; 3099 have taken care to ascertain from the proper authority," says our contemporary. Now we should very much like to know who is this "proper authority" who claims the right to interpret the law for us. The Ordinances of the Board of Health have all the force of statute law within the district to mean exactly the opposite of what they do war, called this day on his sovereign. mean, we may expect very soon to hear that the Acting Attorney-General is preand wife, Miss Thompson, J C Allardyce, S Roth, Paul from time to time, to suit his changing rg Col. Spalding wife and children. H. N. Vinsberg.
A. Cruzan, James Russell, A. Rushton, P. Smith, C. moods. He is just as much (and as little) Jacger, J.D. Lane, J.W. Potter, H. Goldstein, R.W. Putman. P. the proper authority " to do the one Gaspard, S. Fitzpatrick, A. Wenner, I. F. as the other. The ordinance is quite "disant, J. B. Wilcox, R. W. Grannis, J. D. as the other. The ordinance is quite "disancient Roman Tower, over 2000 years old; Paul's Cathedral, where he was received by From San Francisco, per H W Almy, Oct 25-Mrs L.

McCarthy and two children, Mrs E H Pomercy, F Bietenker, J Cassin, H Medharet, F M Fisher, T Farrell, G
Hedge, A Schultz. tinctly worded," and to say that it "does From San Francisco, per Kafakana, Oct 21-Miss Kent, prevariente. The words used in the ordi-From Sydney, per City of New York, Oct 21th-G P Wright, Mrs Bowler, B Field, J Macfarlane, and St pasconstrue "water-tight" to mean something with a leaky bottom is not qualified From Windward Ports, per Likelike, Oct 25-Covernous Rekanlike, Cafong, Chung Lang, W.C. Parke, A Noilson, J. F. Brown, G. H. Bartow, W.A. Hall, G.E. Whitaker, J. Powler, T. Peddler, Kong Hing Lung, Mrs. S. Arona, Miss Ahans, Miss Gandall, S. Gandall, G. H. Luce, Jun., Sam Parker, Miss R. Otto, Miss M. Otto, E. Otto, A. W. Carter, K. Ahans, T. J. Hayselden, H. Johnson, A. Shepherd, J. B. Smyth, Mrs. T. W. Everett, J. W. Kalus, A. H. Smith, W. Petersen, E. Haistead, Miss Oping Loke, J. Taliant, J. D. Roberts, J. D. Spreckels and wife, H. Turton, wife and corcluded C. Williams, wife and two children. rect them; but who try to creep out of an

THE loss of the Stormbird, is reported; Cameron McKay, in his 64th year. (Parific Coast papers being cast away upon the coast of Bon-please copy notice of career given by this paper.) ham's Island. And thus miserably ends our South Sea scheme, from which so much had been hoped parent subterfuge.

THE KING'S TOUR ROUND THE

THE KING IN SPAIN AND PORTUGAL.

LETTER FROM EUROPE-No. 61. (From our own Correspondent.)

LONDON, AUGUST 29. The King left Paris by special train at 8.20 p.m., on Monday, August 15th, the royal suite, consisting of Messrs, Armstrong, Judd, Macfarlane, Hoffnung and Von Oehlhaffen. As the sleeping car was a new one, the axles soon became heated and at of the plantations on which grinding has commenced. The Honored of the Nations 11 o'clock the whole party had to turn out frontier the King was met by the Governor of Navarre, and welcomed to Spain Spanish Embassy at Paris had furnished letters to the Custom-house officials, there was no delay in passing the baggage. On Tuesday, August 16th, train passed > through Navarre and Castile, and on Wednesday, August 17th, the royal party arrived at 7 a.m., at the ancient Royal Palace of the Escurial, a short distance from Madrid. The King passed several hours in inspecting all parts of this interesting edifice, including the throne and tomb all foreigners of long sojourn personally of Philip II., the hall of the Inquisition, the 16th century tapestries, &c. Afterwards a visit was paid to a neighboring chocolate factory, where the King and his attendants were presented with cups of this to many hearts; and now they are proud to fragrant beverage. At 11 o'clock the royal welcome home, the friend of the great of party arrived at Madrid and drove at once party arrived at Madrid and drove at once migration, cannot receive enough praise to the Hotel de la Paz. During the day His for the zeal and devotion he has displayed Majesty was called upon by the Governor of | in this matter. the province and by Senor Sagasta, the The King's tour is unique as a royal Prime Minister and President of the Counachievement. His Majesty is the first, and cil, who expressed King Alphonso's regrets at not being able to meet His Majesty, as he was himself absent at the time, travelling in the northeastern provinces. Before leaving, the King handed him a decoration to be presented to the Spanish monarch. plenishing his Archipelago; and to multi- At 8 p.m., the royal party left Madrid for > Thursday, August 18th, the whole day was passed on the journey through the dreary, barren and dusty plains and sierras of Estremadura, but a slight diversion was afforded by an accident which happened to electric light. the train between Veradas and Puerto Llano. A bullock having strayed on the line, was run over by the locomotive and caused the train to leave the track. Nobody, however, was injured. Spanish papers tell the following pretty anecdote of | drawn up in line with their flag, and pre-King Kalakaua. On being asked by His sented arms as the King passed. His Majesty whether these accidents occur arms and armour; and then paid a long often, the engineer replied : "Oh, no, sire, visit to the tomb of the great Napoleon. only this time, in honor of your Majesty people; and to the fertility and salubrity Whereupon, the King replied with a smile, of his isiand territory :-- and, inviting the "Thank you very much, but in coming back this way, I shall prefer to travel strictly incognito." The accident, however, caused a two hours' delay.

> > Friday, August 19.-Just after midnight

the last Spanish town, Badajoz, a strong fortress near the frontier, was reached. Here a fine supper had been prepared for tuguese frontier town, the King was made a long call on His Majesty at 2 p.m., received by the Governor of the province of ambassidors, as interpreter, has also and a guard of honor. The special car, receive the Hawaiian Order. which the Spanish Government had placed at the King's dispatch, was here changed King passed several hours in inspecting the for another still finer one from the Port. vast collections of the Louvre Museum, and for another still finer one from the Port. guese authorities, and the journey continued; a guard of honor of several offi-HER Royal Highness the Princess cials travelling in the same tain. At halfpast five the King arrived at Lisbon, where, notwithstanding the Arly hour, he met with a State reception, greater and more imposing than at any other European capital. The entire 5th Infantry regiment Regent, has held the reigns of the Govern- was drayn up at the station, and when the special train bearing the King arrived, the military band played the Hawaiian Anthem and the troops presented arms. and patriotic heart. The People bless the There were present to receive His Majesty, good Princess, and will remember with the Admiral Baptistade Andrade, as repregrateful hearts, the short period of her sentative of the King Dom Luiz; General Sousa Pinto, the aide-de-camp of Dom Fernando, the king's father; and Senhor WHEREVER our King appeared in the Antonia da Cunha Sotto Mayor, of the box. streets of Edinburgh, the Scotsman says, Foreign Office, and formerly Charge the people of all classes, took off their d'Affaires at Washington, who had been hats, and respectfully saluted His Majesty. appointed to attend on His Majesty during We trust that none of His Majesty's people; his stay at Lisbon. Four royal galatake a lesson of proper respect to their and conveyed the entire royal party to the sovereign from the generous courtesy of Braganza Hotel, accompanied by a squadthe enlightened people of the capital of ron of 4th Calvary regiment as an escort. At the hotel the entire first floor, being the same apartments occupied by the Emperor of Brazil some years ago, had been prepared for the king and were placed at his disposal by the Portuguese Government. In fact the latter paid all expenses during the King's stay in their country, also ineluding the railway travelling back to Madrid. After His Majesty had taken breakfast, he received a great number of visitors, the Prime Minister and President of the Council, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, officers, consuls and other officials. would have us believe that the folly we At three o'clock, the King and suite in full military uniform drove to the Ayuda Palace, where a very cordial interview took place between the Sovereigns of Portugal and Hawaii. On this, as well as all other that have to be made water-tight, as we occasions, royal carriages were placed at the King's disposal. At half-past four, Dom Luiz payed his return visit to King Kalakana at the Braganza Hotel, accomipanied by his Chamberlain, Count Vidigueira, his Adjutant, Dom Francisco d'Almeida, and the Official of Orders, Viscount de Seixal. He invested the King with the Grand Cross of the Conception and in return received the Order of Kamewhich they relate. If the President of the hameba. Robert Boyd, who arrived at Board is to be allowed to interpret them to Lisbon, five days ago on an Italian man-of Saturday, August 20.-At 7 a.m. His Majesty, accompanied by Admiral de An-For San Francisco, per City of New York, Oct 24-F that the Acting Attorney-General is pre-learly, W A Rice and wife, S C Allen and wife, E H Di-nord, E P Adams, Rev W J Smith and wife, G P Castle pared to interpret the Civil Code for us his attendants drove to Cintra, a neighboring summer resort, with a splendid view on the Atlantic ocean. After a short stop at the Victor Hotel, the royal party inspe Kalakaua his new Portuguese order. King Louis embraced His Majesty on leaving; and Her Majesty the Queen Maria Pia ex-Queen with him. Sunday, August 21.—During the day His arrival at Lisbon. Monday, August 22.-At 2 p.m. the King made his farewell visit to King Louis, who again embraced him. Messrs, Armstrong, Hoffnung, Judd, and Macfarlane were decorated with different classes of Portuguese royal orders. At 4 o'clock His Majesty

Majesty inspected the points of interest in this beautiful capital of Portugal, and in the evening went to the concert at the Passeio-Publico Gardens. On this occasion a band of 150 musicians, under the leadership of the Maestro Senor Gaspar, per-straight to the railway station, where a large growd had gathered to see the foreign this growd bad gathered to see the foreign this growd and was shown over all parts of passenger on the City of Sydney from Honolulu He would ever retain a lively recollection of his large crowd had gathered to see the foreign this ancient historic fortress and palace, in- to San Francisco in January last), and a large visit to the Freemasons Hull, and it would give the monarch off. Here Mr. Armstrong also monarch off. Here Mr. Armstrong also cluding the church, armory, &c. On returning took his leave, as he intended to go by steamer to Bordeany, and join His Majesty was waitsteamer to Bordeaux, and join His Majesty again at Paris. At 8 p.m. the King and suite left Lisbon by special train for Madrid. A very fine sleeping car had been attached for the King's use, and two officers and six | Cross of Wasa, which the King of Sweden soldiers accompanied the train to the fron- and Norway had conferred on King Kalatier as an escort. At midnight Bajadoz kaun, who has been pleased to confer the was again reached, and the Spanish Gover-Grand Cross of Kamehameha on King nor and a guard of honor received His Oscar II. This day the King also visited Majesty back on Spanish soil. Mr. Alexander Armstrong, the Minister's brother, was also present to greet the King.

return journey, and on Wednesday, August 24th, the royal party arrived back at Madrid at 6 a.m. Carriages were found in waiting, and conveyed them again to the Hotel de la Paix. Shortly and get into another car. At the Spanish afterwards the Minister for Foreign Affairs called to present his respects to the King. At 11 o'clock His Majesty paid a visit to the Museo de Pinturas (the celebrated galin the name of King Alfonso. As the lery of Spanish paintings), and then to the Royal Armory. After dinner he took a drive through the fine Retiro Park, and in the evening went to the theater. Thursday, August 25 .- During the fore-

> Cavalry Barracks; then visited the old Royal Castle and the new stables, and at noon went to see a Spanish dance. In the afternoon the Spanish Minister called again and, in the name of King Alfonso, presented His Majesty with the fine order of Charles III. At 5 p.m. the royal party left Madrid. by special train for Paris, where the arrived on Saturday, August 27th, at 6 a.m. P.S.—The royal visit to Portugal was a great success in all respects. The emigration from Madeira and the Azores to Hawaii will be facilitated as much as possible, and it is already announced that 300 families noon the King inspected the Infantry and

THE KING AT PARIS. LETTER No. 62.

will soon sail for Honolulu. Mr. A. Hoffnung, the Hawaiian Commissioner for Im-

LONDON, AUGUST 31. Saturday, August 27 .- At 6 a.m. the King of Hawaii arrived again at Paris, back from the trip to Spain and Portugal, and took the same apartments at the Continental Hotel, which he occupied during his first stay at the French capital, M. Colin de Paradis (the new Consul-General for Ha-waii), and M. Michieli, were present at the station to receive His Majesty. Although somewhat fatigued by his long journey, the King was occupied all day in expediting his Honolulu mail. In the evening His Majesty had some photographs taken by

Sunday, August 28.—This day the King paid a visit to the celebrated Hotel des Invalides. When he arrived he was received in the Great Court by the Governor-General and the chief officers of the Palace, all in full uniform, while all the invalids were Majesty inspected the great collection of In the afternoon he went to the Auteuil races, and, after a private dinner with some special friends, paid a short visit to the Bal Mabille Gardens, and passed the rest of the evening at the Besselieore concert, where a 'Kalakaua March,' composed in his honor, was performed. A telegram was received from President Grevy, again expressing his regrets at not being able to return to Paris King. His Majesty has conferred the Grand Cross of Kamehameha I. on the President of the French Republic, who will present the royal party, but as all had retired to the the King in return with the insignia of the sleeping car, only some tea and cakes were | Legion of Honor. M. Bartheleny St. sent into the carriage. At Elvas, the Por- Hilaire, the Prime Minister who again accompanied by M. Mollard, the introducer

Monday, August 29.-In the forenoon the after the dejeuner, paid a visit to the Palais Bourbon, where the French Legislature meets. He was received by M. de Mahy. the quaestor of the house, and his secretaries, and conducted to the Salle du Trône and to the Meeting Chamber, where His Majesty seated himself an instant in M. Gambetta's Presidential chair. The King did not meet this illustrious French statesman, as he was absent; but he was taken | Follett Synge, late Her Majesty's Comover the state-rooms of his residence at the Petit Bourbon. After his return to the hotel, the King received a visit from the Burdett Coutts Bartlett, Lieutenant Gen-Prince of Orange, Prince Alexander of the Netherlands, accompanied by Captain Beyerman, his private secretary, who came to present his thanks for the presentation of the Grand Cross of the Kalakaua Order. Having paid his return visit half an hour later. His Majesty took dinner, and then passed the evening at the Grand Opera, where he again occupied the Presidential Tuesday, August 30.-After having paid a visit to the great nickel establishment of Count Hankar in the forenoon, His Majesty received farewell visits in the afternoon from Mr. Adams, the Chief Secretary of the British Embassy; His Excellency Monsignor Czaka, the Papal Nuncio at Paris; General Lambert; M. Camescasse, the Chief of the Paris Police; Sefor Mendes Leal, the Portuguese Minister; and from the Roumanian Ambassador, M. Catargi. Lunch had been taken with Consul-General M. de Paradis, on which occasion Colonel Judd, Major Macfarlane, Consul-General Hugo Sassen and Captain Warin, the Adjutant of the Grand Chancellor of the Legion of Honor, were also present. In the afternoon the Hawaiian Consul-General, with Colonel Judd, also called on the Roumanian Ambassador in the name of the Hawaiian Government, to acknowledge the receipt of the notification regarding the assumption of the Royal title by Prince Charles, and to hand him the insignia of the Kamehameha Order for this monarch. At quarter to 8 His Majesty and suite left Paris for Calais, crossed the channel, and arrived here again this morning at 6 a, m.

THE KING AGAIN AT LONDON. LETTER No. 63.

LONDON, SEPT. 7, 1881. for Scotland after a week's stay in the British Metropolis; on Tuesday next, the 13th inst., he sails from Liverpool for New

Wednesday, August 31.—Having left Paris the previous evening, His Majesty and suite arrived by the morning mail train. on reaching Charing Cross Station, the King was met by Mr. Robert F. Synge, of the Foreign Office, and at once drove to Claridge's Hotel. After a few visits and dinner, His Majesty and suite went to Drury Lane Theater, and saw the new comedy:

Thursday, Sept. 1 .- In the forenoon the and His Majesty then paid a visit to Dom the Rev. Dr. Stubbs, canon in residence, Fernando, the King's father. Returning to who conducted him over this magnificent Lisbon, the King and suite then drove to building. Among other places of interest the Royal Palace, and at 8 took dinner with King Louis. On this occasion the latter of Wellington and of Lord Nelson. In the (having just received his promotion and appointwore the Kamehameha star, and King afternoon, Mr. Clifford Smith called on the ment) were his new order as Knight Com-King at the hotel with an invitation to be panion of the Kamehameha Order; and Colonel present at the meeting of the Social Judd's breast was resplendent with the numerous Science Association in Dublin next week, decorations conferred on him by foreign rulers. pressed the hope that, on returning again to Europe, His Majesty would bring his want of time. Mr. Armstrong this day took leave of the King as he intended to sail the next day for New York. He will meet the royal party again on their arrival at New York and accompany them on their way to Honolulu. In the evening His Majesty was present at the performance of "Patience" at the Opera Comique, Strand. The play-bills for the King and suite were rect them; but who try to creep out of an formed a "Kalakaua hymn," composed printed on white satin with lace borders untenable position under a cloak of trans- by the latter in honor of His Majesty's and the book of the play was presented to

His Majesty bound in gold. Friday, Sept. 2.-After breakfast the King with his attendants paid a visit to the Tower of London, where he was received by Lieutenant-General Charles Lennox B. Colonel Gawler, Keeper of the Regalia, and Watson of Glasgow, Mr. Mache of Edinburgh, aver Allen & Robinson's, Queen Street, neu-

the National Art Gallery, the mint and afterwards, the General Telegraph and Post Offices, St. Martins le Grand, where he in-Tuesday, August 23rd, was passed on the spected the interesting workings at these party went to Her Majesty's theatre to see Haverley's American Minstrels.

> King with Messrs. Macfarlane, Judd. and Synge, visited the Blenheim Gun and Small Arms's Works, Eagle Wharf road, Hoxton, and honored Mrs. Nordenfeldt with his presence at luncheon there. de la Chanoinère (the Austrian, German, from the main masthead. French naval and military attaches), Com-Royal Swedish Navy, Colonel Del Morton. General Richter, Captain J. Brown (Assist-tant Director of Ordnance at Admiralty). Major Fitzgerald, Captain MacKenzie, Captain Grundie, Lieutenant Armit, R. N., and Mr. K. Tatewaki, the Japanese military attache. After first having inspected the His Majesty repaired to the boardroom. where the lunch had been prepared. Mr. Nordenfeldt, after proposing the health of the Queen, requested all guests to drink to the health of His Majesty the King of Hawaii. This toast having been most heartily received with all honors, the King returned thanks in a few appropriate and well chosen sentences remarking, that all he had seen, reflected the greatest credit on and did honor to the inventive genius of their worthy and distinguished host. The regal party left the works amidst the hearty cheers of the assembled workmen. Miss Craeroft, a neice of Lady Franklin's, luncheon with Mr. A. Hoffnung of Redeliff the Hawaiian Kingdom. Prior to his departure for the north, His Majesty designated Mr. Hoffnung to be a Knight Companion of the Order of Kalakana and invested him with the insignia and jewel of that Order at Claridge's Hotel. This honor has been exceedingly well bestowed : Mr. Hoffnung having more than deserved it for his devotion, integrity and sacrifices, having spent two months entirely in His Majesty's service and having executed everything given in his charge in the most zealous and complete manner. During the King's stay in Spain and Portugal, his services of the royal party must always keep him in grateful remembrance. Monday, Sept. 5th,-In the afternoon the Majesty arrived at about two o'clock, a royal salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the battery on Green Hill, on the Artillery mess-rooms, the King proceeded to the Royal Arsenal, attended by Colonel W. Stirling, C.B., Assistant Quartermaster-General, R.A., and other officers. His from his country seat in time to meet the manufactory of wheels he machinery in the royal carriage department and in the making of leavy shells in the laboratory, being evidently well acquainted with even storehouses, where he was shown ready

King at Claridge's Hotel. staff, paid a farewell visit to their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of those who have called upon the King at Claridge's, during this last visit to London, have been Count Steenbock, Mr. W. W. missioner in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. A. Hoffnung, Baroness Burdett Coutts and Mr. eral Sir Dighton Probyn, and Colonel Teesdale of the Prince of Walss' household, to express thanks, His Excellency M. d'Antas, Portuguese Minister; Manley Hopkins, Consul-General; R. W. Janion, Consul, for Hawaii, in London, Dr. H. J. Billing and Lieutenant W.M. Synge, R.A., Mr. R. F. Synge, was relieved from attendance on His Majesty until after the funeral express for Glasgow.

TURE FOR NEW YORK. LETTER No. 66.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 14. Yesterday the King bade farewell to Europe, and sailed from Liverpool for America. On Monday morning, Sept. 12th, His Majesty and suite (Mr. Synge, Colonel Judd, Colonel Macfarlane, and Herr Von Oehlhaffen) left Rufford Park (the sent of Sir Thomas Hesketh) by train, for Liverpool, and arrived at the Exchange Station of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railroad at noon. The King was received by the Mayor, Mr. W. B. Forwood; the Hawaiian Consul, Mr. Janion; the Hawaiian Commissioner, Mr. Hoffnung, and other officials. A large crowd had assembled at the station, who greeted the King on his arrival with hearty British cheers. The Mayor placed four State carriages at His Majesty's disposal for himself and his suite, and then drove to St. George's Hall, where the King was tendered the hospitality of the city of Liverpool by the Mayor. Visits were then paid to the Free Library, the Picton Reading Rooms, and the Walker Art Gallery. After inspecting the graminent buildings, His Majesty was entertained Last night the King of Hawaii left here by the Mayor at luncheon at the Town Hall, number of the public men of Liverpool being also present. In the afternoon the King and attendants made a trip up the Mersey on the Dock Board tender Alert, specially placed at his disposal by Mr. T. D. Hornby, chairman of the Mersey Dock Board, who, with a large number of invited guests, accompanied His Majesty. band on board performed a musical selection during the excursion, and many of the vessels in the river raised their bunting in honor of the King. On his return from the river trip, His Majesty paid a visit to the Commercial Chambers end the Exchange New Rooms, and then drove to been prepared for the regal party. In the even-ing His Majesty honored the Mayor with his presence at a State dinner at the Town Hall. On this occasion the King wore the Star of the Order | No. 1 of St. Michael and St. George, and the Grand The toasts to the health of King Kalakaua, and to the prosperity of his Kingdom, were received with great enthusiasm; and His Majesty replied in his usual appropriate and felicitous manner.

Tuesday, Sept. 13th, the King and his suite were conveyed in the Mayor's State carriage immense crowd had assembled to witness his departure from Old England. The Mayor drove down to the landing to bid adieu to the King, who expressed his gratification with his reception in Liverpool. A special tender took the King out to the White Star steamship Celtic, Captain Glendell. His Mujesty was accompanied to the steamer by Mr. R. W. Janion (Hawaiian Consul). Maitland, C.B., Lieutenant of the Tower; and Mrs. and Miss Janion, Mr. Hoffaung, Mr. and suite went to see a bull-fight, and then, with an escort of officials and cavalry, drove guards presented arms. The King made Mr. W. L. Carpenter (who was also his fellow Firth or Forth in the distance.

-Jg27,tf

ed upon by Count Otto Steenbock, the Swes beautiful bouquets of flowers. On board of the an account of the hearty reception he lad dish Charge d'Affaires, who delivered to His Celtie special accommodations had been made for received from the Grand Imperial Council of Majesty a letter from his sovereign, together His Majesty. The captain's room on the spar- Scotland. He had also much pleasure in acceptance with the included of the captain's room on the sparwith the insignia of the Order of the Holy deck amidships had been reserved, and tastefully fitted up as a royal sitting-room and porler; and the sleeping apartment, which is the first state- additional Masonie tic between himself and this room forward of the saloon, had been richly decurated. Among those who took leave of His Majesty on board of the Celtic was the Right Rev. Dr. Staley, for nearly ten years Bishop of Honolulu (in 1861-70), during which period establishments. In the evening the royal in the kingdom, was intimately associated with Among those who had the bonor of being intro-Saturday, Sept. 3-In the forenoon the was confirmed and married by Bishop Staley." After a last farewell, the tender returned with There all non-passengers, and just before I o'clock the were present to meet His Majesty, Count steamer started on the voyage across the ocean, and of the Earl of Kintore, Grand Sovereign of Cassini, Major Vietinghoff, and Captain the Royal Standard of Hawaii floating proudly the Red Cross Order. His Majesty also accepted

IN EDINBURGH.

The Scotsman.

On Saturday, after breakfast, King Kalakana waiked in the grounds of Dreghorn Castle,* and, in commemoration of his visit, planted two maple trees, naming them after Jenny Cowan Scott works, machinery, guns, and amunition, Mache and Robert Andrew Scott Mache, of Dreghorn, and niece and nephew of Mr. Cowan, M.P. About a quarter to 12 His Majesty took his deigh the reception hall to the carriage. As His Majesty drove off, the assembled servants gave a hearty farewell "Aloha," which His Here His Majesty was entertained at luncheon, Majesty conrecously acknowledged. The royal the other members of the company being Sir party-consisting of the King, Colonel the Hon. tings Judd, Chamberlain; Colonel G. W. Sarlane, A.D.C.; Mr. Robert Follett Synge; Mr and Mrs. Macfie, of Dreghorn ; Lady M'Clure, and Dr. Bishop-drove in two carriages by way of Hanters Tryst avenue and Comiston, to Fair-In the afternoon His Majesty paid a visit to unde Head toll, at which they turned towards drove to the Caledonian Raniway Station, and Edinburgh. They drove by the Borestone at | proceeded at 2 25 p.m. in one of the London and and during the evening remained in his Maningside, and proceeded along by the Grange North-western royal saloon carriages for Rufford rooms, engaged with his correspondence. Cemetery, passed into the Queen's Park at the Hall, the sent of Sir Thomas Hesketh. The car-Messrs. Nelson's works. Driving to Samson's | riage was attached to the ordinary train by the Sunday, Sept. 4th, the King with his Messrs. Nelson's works. Driving to Samson's range was attached to the ordinary train by the suite went to the morning service at St. Ribs, the party returned to the higher drive. west coast route, but, through the liberality of Paul's Cathedral, afterwards taking went round Arthur Sent by Dunsappie, and passing Holyrsod (where the guard turned out | Preston to avoid His Majesty being detained square, Commissioner of Emigration for and presented arms as the King's party passed). proceeded by Regent Road to the Freemasons' Hall via St. Andrew Square. For almost the were superintended by Mr. Irons, stationmaster. first time during His Majesty's brief stay here. The King was received at the station by the Lord the sun shone brilliantly, and the city looked at its best. The atmosphere being clear, the party | His Majesty to the platform were Sir Thomas and had the pleasure of witnessing the magnificent | Lady M. Clure, Mr. and Mrs. Maclie, and Dr. and view which the Queen's Drive commands in all | Mrs. Bishop. A large crowd assembled at the directions; and here, we believe, the King ex- station, and, respectfully saluting His Majesty on imself more time in Scotland. made for his planting a Thuja Gigantea (gigantic | raised as the train moved off from the platform. were simply invaluable, and all members arbor vite of California). Professor Dickson, The King before leaving, entered into conversaregius keeper; Prof. Balfour, ex-regius keeper; | Con with several ladies and gentlemen on the King paid a visit to Woolwich. When His Majesty, and a number of people loitered about in Scotland. He was, it may farther be menthe gardens in the hope that they might see the | tioned, particularly gratified with the respect however, a telegram was received from Mr. R. A | bats being everywhere litted by pedestri common. Ater taking lunch at the Royal Macfie, of Dreghorn, stating that King Kalakana His Majesty being recognised. was so much latigued that he would have to forego the pleasure of visiting the Gardens.

CEREMONY IN FREEMASONS HALL. Majesty was especially interested in the Freemason's Hall was reached about I o'clock, and His Majesty, as he entered, was respectfully saluted and loudly cheered. The object of the visit was to attend a special meeting | Islands visited Glasgow. He was met by Counthe most recent improvements in warlike the Red Cross of Constantine, which had resolved through several of the leading shipbuilding yards material. He also greatly admired the vast to confer on His Majesty the rank of Knight and other works. In the evening the King was Grand Cross of the Order. There was a large for immediate use the reserve equipment of attendance of brethren, among those present being harness for 10,000 horses. After visiting all the following members of the Grand Council, places of interest, His Majesty returned to viz. :- Captain John Crombie, Aberdeen, Grand London, the battery again firing the royal Senior General, Acting Grand Sovereign in the salute on his departure. During his ab- unavoidable absence of the Earl of Kintore; sence the Prince of Wales, attended by Colonel Teesdale, C.B., called upon the Grand Viceroy; Robert S. Brown, Grand Remuch flattered at the demonstration and expres-Tuesday, Sept. 6. - In the afternoon His Grand Standard Bearer; James B. Mercer, Past displayed towards me to-night. Most thankful Majesty accompanied, by the officers of his Grand Chancellor; and the following members | do I feel to the Lord Provost for having given so Wales at Marlborough House, Among H. Nepean, Bart.; Francis Law., and F. W. I think, I can say beyond what he has said, Roberts; also William Mann, S.S.C., P.G. Warden; D. Murray Lyon, Grand Secretary. Grand Lodge of Scotland; Councillor Alexander

W. Hamilton, J. H. M. Bairnefather, S.S.B.;

of his uncle, General Synge, who died two to the Conclave, and received under the arch of but we have a Caledonian Club and a St. days ago, but he will join the King again steel, the Acting Grand Sovereign, addressing George's Club, both organised by Scotsmen. In in Scotland. At 1-past 9, His Majesty and His Majesty, then said :- "The members of the fact, of the members of my family a Scotsman is suite left St. Paneras station by Midland Grand Imperial Council of Scotland are very one. (Loud applause.) Besides our political THE KING AT LIVERPOOL DEPAR- you the highest honor they have it in their power | nection in commerce, but supplying us with courtesy in allowing your name to be added to the roll of Knights Grand Cross of Scotland. 1 has been prevented from attending and personally conferring this distinction upon you. As your Majesty's time is very limited, and as we heartily concur in every word said by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh at the meeting yesterday, I shall only detain you to say that we all join-and every freemason in Scotland when he reads of the event of to-day will join-in earnest and heartfelt prayer to our Omnipotent Ruler, the great and happiness may attend your Majesty through life, that you may have a safe and pleasant return to your kingdom that your reign there may be long and prosperous, and that you may continue to take a warm interest in, manifest a zeal for, and be a credit and ornament to the craft we with a copy of the statutes of the Council, which | for Edinburgh, where he was warmly received by Sovereign, in investing him with the Grand | der their pilotage visited the many objects in the Cross, further said :- "In the name and by city. special authority of the Grand Council of the Order, I now invest you with the jewel of a Knight Grand Cross of the Imperial Council of Scotland; and may I venture to express the hope that the jewel and the patent, which the Grand Recorder will forward in a few days, may sometimes recall to your mind your visit to Scotland, where thousands of Freemasons who have never seen your Majesty's face, but know your great talents as a Mason, and the high position you have attained in the craft, extend to your Majesty their fraternal feelings of esteem and love, and will be highly gratified to find that the North-western Hatel, where apartments had those feelings are reciprocated by your Majest, ?" The Acting Viceroy, Brother James Crichton, in appropriate terms, then offered His Majesty honorary membership of the Edinburgh Conclave,

> His Majesty, in graciously intimating his acceptance of these honors, referred to the cordial reception he had met with during his visit to Scotland. No honor which he had received would be more appreciated than that which had been conferred upon him by the Grand Council.

gring slopes of Pentlands, an hour or so from Edinnigh. It is a one spacious edifice, partly covered with re, with tower and turnets and arches, strong and state. , and gray without and bright with all cheer and home. ognity within. It has seen the Pentlands changing from rown to green for something like two hundred Springs afgrious stretches of woodland lead you off on either from the hotel to the landing stage, where an side, while down the murmuring stream in the hollow below sweep away the greenest of meadows, with here and there stately drooping trees, and varied with wandering white-wooled sheep and capering lambs. Passing down the long drive you come to the ancient "Lodge," with its stone turrets half smothered in a wealth of the richest ivy. Still farther on are the cottages of the tenantry and the village of Collington down in the valley or clinging and the trees to the hillside. And what a magnificent reach of country spreads itself out before you on every side. There in the foreground, like some mighty gulf of tenderest green, lighted by bursts of spicniid April smishine, and deepened by the shadows of drifting clouds, lies a superb forest ridged, village dotted plain. And there beyond this, where the sun comes dotted plain. And there beyond this, where the sun comes out and the clouds part at its coming, may be seen still, motionless in its verdant setting, like a silver mirror the ing the honorary membership of the Edinburgh Conclave. No. 1, which he regarded as an country, so famous in Musoury. (Applause.) His Majesty then signed the roll of membership of Conclave No. 1. After the ceremony His Majesty's health was drunk with great enthusizem, and afterwards His Majesty departed amid (says the Times) Kalakaua, then highest chief the acclamations of the assembled brethren. the Bishop in planting a branch of the Church of duced to His Majesty were-William Mann, England in the Islands. " King Kalakaua (I still | S.S.C., Past Sentor Grand Warden of the Grand quote from the above paper) was its most distin- Lodge of Scatland; Sir Molyneux Nepeau, Bart.; guished lay member, grudging neither labour nor | Councillor Henry; and Dr. Loth, who presented means in his devotion to the Church, in which he a copy of his work on the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. Before his departure His Majesty graciously accepted the portraits of Sir Michael Shaw Stewart, Grand Master Mason of Scotland; a copy of "The Grand Ledge of Scotland Galop" by Francis Law. Letters of apology were remodore Ocana, and Baron Barneknow of THE KING OF THE SANDWICH ISLANDS | ceived from the Earl of Kintore, Grand Sovereign; Capt. Charles Hunter, Grand Viceroy; the Rev. T. N. Wannop, Grand High Prelate; J. H. Batfour, W.S., Grand Marshal; and Col. J. Todd Stewart, Glasgow, Grand Chamberlain.

As on his arrival, the departure of His Majesty from the Freemasons' Hall was witnessed by a large crowd, who again raised a hearty cheer.

DEPARTURE OF THE KING. After leaving the Freemasons' Hall, His parture from Dreghorn Castle, a piper playing | Majesty drove by way of Charlotte Square (where he obtained a view of the Prince Consort statue) to the residence of Dr. Bishop, 12, Walker-street. Thomas and Lady M Clure, Mr. and Mrs. Macfie, of Dreghorn, Colonel the Hon. Hastings Judd. Chamberlain to the King ; Colonel G. W. Macfarlane, A D.C.; and Mr. Robert Follett Synge, representative of the Foreign Office in attendance upon His Majesty. After luncheon the King the railway company, was to be run special from waiting an hour and a bail at the station there. The arrangements for the departure of the train Provoet; and amongst others who accompanied pressed regret that he had not been able to allow arrival, gave him a hearty cheer on leaving. His Majesty courteously acknowledged the enthusiasm King Kalakaua was expected at noon in the of the crowd, and seemed specially touched by Royal Botanic Gardens, and preparations were the "Alohas" and "Hurrals" which were Mr. J. Sadler, curator; and Mr. Isaac Anderson | platform, and expressed himself highly pleased Henry, of Hay Lodge, awaited the arrival of His | with the heartiness of the reception given to him ustrious stranger. Between 12 and 1 o'clock, everywhere shown to him while driving about

THE KING IN GLASGOW.

Scottish American Journal, New York. A WARM TRIBUTE TO SCOTSMEN.

On the 7th Sept. the King of the Sandwich of the Grand Conclave of Scotland of the Order of | cilior W. Renny Watson, and by him was escorted entertained at dinner by the Magistrates. Lord Provost Ure presided, supported by a distinguished company. In responding to the toast of his health, the King said :-

"My Lord Provost and Gentlemen,-I must thank you all for the kind manner in which you corder; James Dalrymple Duncan, Glasgow, sion of good-fellowship and feeling that has been of the Grand Senate, viz. : William Milne, Cap- long a description of the condition, resources, tain A. M. Bruce, James Melville, Sir Molyneux | and prosperity of my kingdom. There is nothing, which is all quite true, and indicates that he has read up a good deal regarding the country. I may add this, however, that at the first construc-Henry, G. S. Ferrier, J. Fleming, P. R. Haddow, | tion of our kingdom we had the advice and assistance of the people of Scotland-that is to say, we have had Scotsmen in the administration of the His Majesty was received by the Grand Government. (Applause) Since the first con-Recorder, and by the Grand Secretary of the struction of our Government as a political body Grand Lodge of Scotland, Brother D. Murray | we have had Scotsmen at the head of the judicial Lyon, by whom he was conducted to the ante- work, which is the highest, the most reliable, and room, where he signed the attendance-book of the most important department in the political the Grand Council, and the Visiters' Book of the organization of my kingdom; and in almost all Grand Lodge of Scotland. The Conclave was | the other departments there seems to be a Scotsorened under the presidency of Captain John | man always at the head. (Lond applause.) We Crombie. His Majesty having been introduced have not only Scotsmen at the head of effairs, much gratified at having the pleasure of meeting | connection we have been very much indebted to your Majesty here to-day, and conferring upon the people of Scotland, not only for their conto bestow; and they have desired me to convey | machinery, which has been the means of adding to your Majesty their grateful sense of your a great deal to the prosperity of my kingdom-(applause) - not only machinery for the manufacture of sugar, but also for steamships in regret exceedingly that the Grand Sovereign of bringing commerce and navigation to my the Order, the Right Hon, the Earl of Kintore, country; and in that we are indebted to two or three gentlemen who are present to night-Mr. Pierce, of the firm of Messrs. Elder & Son-(loud applause) - also to Messrs, Mirrlees, Tait & Watson-(applause) and to the firm of Messrs. Macfarlane, and I may say to many more I do not know at present. (Applanse.) Indeed, taking it all in all, I have more ar less to acknowledge our indebtedness to Scotland, and the Scotch people. (Lond applause.) With these Architect of the Universe, that every blessing few words I thank you again for having granted me this great privilege and honor of being invited to such an assembly d distinguished and wise men as I see before me. (Loud and continued applause.) On the following day King Kalakaua visited Loch Lomond, and enjoyed a trip on the Clyde all love so dearly." The King was then presented from Arrochar to Glasgow. On the 9th he left he pledged himself to obey. The Acting the Lord Provost and municipal officers, and un-

> ARRIVAL AT AND DEPARTURE FROM LIVERPOOL.

This morning His Mujesty proceeds to Liverpool, where the Mayor is to devote the day in showing the King the docks and public works, and preside in the evening at a farewell banquet in his Majesty's honor. The King will sail tomorrow in one of the White Star steamers for New York, and, after spending a few days in the Eastern States, proceed to California, sailing from San Francisco for home. During his absence the Govrnment is being conducted by the Princess Libuokalani, the beir apparent to the

The impression formed of the King by those who have had the opportunity of conversing with him is one of a very tavorable character. His manner and deportment are, it is said, those of a thoroughly well-bred gentleman. He is very affable, while retaining the natural dignity be fitting his position. Possessed of remarkable conversational powers, he expresses himself well in English with a slight foreign accent. He is * Darrasons Caster. - The following description of the acute in his criticisms, which manifest culture Castle, written by Prof. Frank W. Darhon, we clip from | and originality of thought, and when speaking he Friend of July :- The Castle of Dreghorn stands on | of his travels shows that he is keen-sighted, and has received impressions which are not likely to be lost in furthering the comfort and happiness of the people over whom it is his lot to rule.

For fuller particulars in relation to His Majesty's vi it to Liverpo I, see our European correspondent's letter, No. 66.-ED. P.C.A.] A HAWAHAN HONOR.

King Kalakaua bas conferred on Mrs. Bishop (formerly Miss Bird) authoress of " Six Month's in the Hawaiian Archipelago," the Literary Order of Kapiolani, with the jewel and decoration, including a miniature of Queen Kapiolani. The order is one which the King himself institated, and its latest recepient is one who by her writings has done much to interest the inhabitants of Great Britain and America, in the Hawaiian Islands.